NATHAN HUFF: The Stories We Tell Ourselves

JULY 26 – SEPTEMBER 24, 2019

OPENING RECEPTION: THURSDAY, AUGUST 1ST | 5 - 8:00pm

SANTA BARBARA - Sullivan Goss - An American Gallery is excited to announce our first solo exhibition for Nathan Huff. The show will feature a diverse selection of sculptures and paintings, including a monumental 14 foot tall scroll painting that stretches from floor to ceiling in our first gallery space, and an installation that will occupy our front window space.

Huff moved to Santa Barbara in 2013 to accept a position as Assistant Professor of Art at Montecito's Westmont College, and quickly became known as one of the most exciting young artists in town. His distinctive vision features a range of recurring objects, icons, and visual metaphors, suggesting a deeply personal and often mysterious significance. Through expressive use of color and remarkable draftsmanship, these dreamscapes turn commonplace objects into scenes of awe inspiring beauty.

Huff earned an MFA in Drawing and Painting from CSU Long Beach, a BA in art education from Azusa Pacific University, and has also studied art in Italy, France, the UK, and Spain. Huff's installations have been featured in solo exhibitions at UCR Culver and Sweeney Galleries (Riverside), Los Angeles at D.E.N. Contemporary (West Hollywood), Minthorne Gallery (Oregon), Gallerie View (Salambo, Tunisia), group exhibitions at JK Gallery (Culver City), Lotus Land (Santa Barbara), Westmont Ridely Tree Museum of Art (Santa Barbara), and the Angels Gate Cultural Center (San Pedro, CA). In 2011 he was invited by the state department as a guest Curator with Art in Embassies for the US Ambassador in New Zealand to curate an exhibition "Encountering Place." Nathan has also taught classes CSU Long Beach, LA Southwest College, Biola University, and Azusa Pacific University as an adjunct lecturer. He has been featured on Huffington Post and in Artillery Magazine.
