SANTA BARBARA - Sullivan Goss - An American Gallery is excited to announce its fourth solo exhibition for Nathan Huff. This new exhibition will feature works for sale concurrently with two separate museum exhibitions - a solo show at Stanislaus State University and a group show at the Westmont Ridley Tree Museum of Art in Montecito. Undeterred by this busy schedule, the artist has taken on the task of designing a site-specific installation at Sullivan Goss, taking over the exhibition space to make something unforgettable as he has done for so many museums and institutions. Huff's iconic magical realist subject matter and versatility with painting, sculpture and works that combine the two, make his exhibitions uniquely experiential - where the whole is greater than the sum of its parts.

Huff's unique visual language creates freewheeling narratives: personal stories of suspending gravity, traversing emotional vertigo, and sorting reservoirs of memories. Using recurring iconography and evocative visual metaphors he has a particular talent for creating moments of wonder, where the expressive impact is high, but the meanings are mysterious.

ABOUT THE ARTIST: Nathan Huff earned an MFA in Drawing and Painting from CSU Long Beach and is a professor of art at Westmont College, in Montecito. His installations have been featured in solo exhibitions at UCR Culver and Sweeney Galleries (Riverside), Los Angeles at D.E.N. Contemporary (West Hollywood), Minthorne Gallery (Oregon), Gallerie View (Salambo, Tunisia), group exhibitions at JK Gallery (Culver City), Lotus Land (Santa Barbara), Westmont Ridley Tree Museum of Art (Santa Barbara), and the Angels Gate Cultural Center (San Pedro, CA). His works are in the permanent collections of the Santa Barbara Museum of Art, the Culver Museum, the Hilbert Museum of California Art, the Westmont Ridley-Tree Museum of Art, and California State University, Long Beach.
